

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

JULIENNE LUBIN,
Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION
SERVICES (USCIS),
U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL, and
U.S. ATTORNEY FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA,
Defendants.

Case No. _____

COMPLAINT FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

INTRODUCTION

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction under federal law because Plaintiff's claims involve a federal agency that has failed to take action on her case within a reasonable time.

PARTIES

5. Defendant USCIS is responsible for processing immigration applications, including Plaintiff's.

6. Defendant U.S. Attorney General oversees USCIS.

CASE HISTORY

8. Plaintiff filed her application for permanent residency on October 21, 2021.

9. She completed an interview at the USCIS Oakland Park Field Office on February 9, 2022, and was told to expect a decision in a few months. However, more than three years later, no decision has been made.

I have repeatedly contacted USCIS through service requests and expedite requests, including:

- January 27, 2025: Service Request #37274787
- January 15, 2025: Expedite Request #37101338
- October 28, 2024: Service Request #36011712

- December 27, 2023: Service Request for Receipt #IOE-09-139-55868
- September 24, 2023: Service Request for Receipt #IOE-09-139-55868
- May 10, 2023: Service Request #28304783

11. In an effort to resolve the delay, Plaintiff sought assistance from Congresswoman Sheila Cherfilus-McCormick's office on February 3, 2025.

12. On January 31, 2025, Plaintiff filed a complaint with the CIS Ombudsman (Request #20250149112) to escalate the case.

HOW THE DELAY HAS AFFECTED PLAINTIFF

13. The delay in processing Plaintiff's case has caused significant hardship, including:

- Being unable to travel with her son to The Bahamas so he can visit his late father's grave.
- Delaying the purchase of a home because of uncertainty about her immigration status.
- Missing the opportunity to visit her father, whose health is declining rapidly.
- Inability to handle probate matters in The Bahamas for her son to receive his rightful inheritance.
- Being forced to pay $680 for an emergency travel document in April 2024 to take her son to his father's funeral after he was tragically murdered.
- Ongoing emotional stress, anxiety, and financial uncertainty due to the delay.

WHY COURT INTERVENTION IS NECESSARY

14. USCIS is legally required to process applications within a reasonable time under the Administrative Procedure Act.

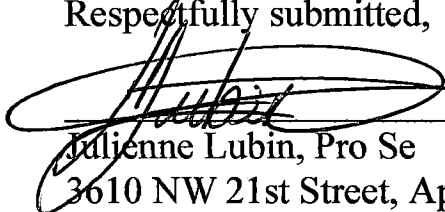

15. The Oakland Park Field Office's processing time for cases like Plaintiff's is 25.5 months, but her case has been pending much longer, making this delay unreasonable.

WHAT PLAINTIFF REQUESTS

I respectfully request that this Court:

- Order USCIS to immediately process and adjudicate her pending applications.
- Grant any additional relief that the Court finds appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Julianne Lubin", is written over a horizontal line. The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping initial "J".

This notice, by itself, does not grant any immigration status or benefit, nor is it evidence that this case is still pending. However, this Notice of Action automatically extends the validity of your Employment Authorization Document (EAD) for up to 180 days from the expiration date printed on the front of the card and can be used for employment eligibility verification (Form I-9) purposes if:

- You have timely filed to renew your current Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document (EAD);
- Your EAD renewal is under a category that is eligible for an automatic 180-day extension (see uscis.gov/i-765 for a list of categories);
- The category on your current EAD matches the "Class Requested" listed on this notice (if you are a TPS beneficiary or applicant, your EAD and this notice must contain either the A12 or C19 category, but they do not need to match each other), and
- You do not receive your renewal EAD before your current EAD expires.

If we deny your renewal application, the automatic extension immediately ends and cannot be used for Form I-9 purposes. If your EAD is a combo card, the automatic extension does not apply to advance parole.

If we have approved or are still processing your underlying Form I-140 and your Form I-485 has been pending for at least 180 days, you may request to change employers under INA 204(j). For more information on this process, please visit uscis.gov/i-485supj.

Urgent Request for Assistance – Green Card Delay Beyond Processing Time

me Jan 31

to cisombudsman ▾

Dear Ombudsman,

CIS number 20250149112

I am writing to seek urgent assistance regarding the processing of my I-485 Adjustment of Status application. My husband filed my petition in October 2021, and for over three years, I have been waiting in limbo, desperately hoping for a resolution. My receipt numbers are IOE0913955868 and IOE0913955869.

Throughout this prolonged wait, I have exhausted every possible avenue to get an update on my case. I have called USCIS countless times, only to be told that my case is still "under review." Each time, I receive the same vague response, with no real explanation for the delay. I have uploaded new supporting evidence, hoping it would help move things forward, yet nothing has changed. I have repeatedly requested to speak to a USCIS supervisor, but my requests have gone unanswered. I also submitted an expedite request due to my father's serious illness, explaining the urgency and hardship this delay is causing my family. Unfortunately, my request was denied without clear reasoning. My case is now far past the normal processing time for the Oakland field office, yet I remain stuck in uncertainty. The emotional toll of this delay is overwhelming. Every day, I live with the fear of what might happen—will I suddenly receive a notice of denial? Will I be forced to leave my husband, my home, and the life I have built in this country? The stress and anxiety are submitted an expedite request due to my father's serious illness, explaining the urgency and hardship this delay is causing my family. Unfortunately, my request was denied without clear reasoning. My case is now far past the normal processing time for the Oakland field office, yet I remain stuck in uncertainty. The emotional toll of this delay is overwhelming. Every day, I live with the fear of what might happen—will I suddenly receive a notice of denial? Will I be forced to leave my husband, my home, and the life I have built in this country? The stress and anxiety are unbearable.

I feel completely helpless and forgotten in this system. I have done everything asked of me—filed my paperwork correctly, submitted evidence, followed up repeatedly—yet USCIS has failed to act on my case. The lack of transparency and accountability in this process is deeply frustrating, and I am pleading for intervention.

I kindly ask your office to investigate my case and help push for a decision. I am not asking for any special treatment—just a fair and timely resolution. Three years is far too long to wait in uncertainty about my future. Please help me find answers.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I truly appreciate any assistance your office can provide.

Sincerely,

Julienne Lubin

Good morning,

Thank you for your inquiry, dated February 3, 2025 on behalf of your constituent, JULIENNE NMN LUBIN, regarding HER pending form I-485 Permanent Residence/Adjust Status (Family).

As a part of a greater eligibility determination, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) conducts background and security checks on applicants and certain petitioners for immigration benefits. These checks are necessary to ensure United States national security and public safety interests. In some cases, the results of these checks require USCIS to perform additional inquiries or consult with other government agencies. When this is necessary, there is often some delay in resolving the checks, and it is difficult to predict when resolution will be completed. Please be assured that this case has not been overlooked. Once all checks are resolved, the PETITION will be adjudicated and your constituent will be notified of the decision.

Case status may be monitored online at <https://egov.uscis.gov/>.

We respectfully request you allow at least 120 days from the date of this email before following up on the status of the case. When necessary, if submitting a follow-up inquiry, please send it to us directly via our web portal at <https://www.uscis.gov/congress/congressional-web-portal/>. Please make sure to select Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) Office; Oakland Park Field Office currently processing the case to avoid a delayed response.
